

Privacy is very important. I believe that if people put their names on a no call list, the list should be honored. Phone calls, especially when not wanted, are totally annoying and should not have to be tolerated by anyone who does not want them.